3.1. By signing this Agreement, it is Plaintiff's intent to, and he hereby waives and releases all claims and potential claims arising under the FLSA against the Released Parties existing, arising from, relating to, or connected with acts or omissions occurring at any time prior to and including the date Plaintiff executes this Agreement. In the unlikely event that a claim or potential claim arising under the FLSA has been omitted from this release, Plaintiff hereby assigns and conveys said claims and potential claims to Defendant in exchange for Defendant's obligations in this Agreement. Plaintiff agrees to release and discharge the Released Parties not only from any and all FLSA claims that Plaintiff could make on his own behalf, but Plaintiff also specifically waives any right to become, and promises not to become, a member of any class in any proceeding or case in which a claim or claims against the Released Parties may arise, in whole or in part, from any event that occurred prior to the date Plaintiff executes this Agreement. If Plaintiff is not permitted to opt-out of a future class, then Plaintiff agrees to waive any recovery for which Plaintiff would be eligible as a member of such class.

3.2. Except as may be necessary to enforce this Agreement, or to seek a judicial determination of the validity of the waiver of claims, and to the fullest extent permitted by law, Plaintiff agrees not to join or continue any Lawsuit, arbitration, administrative charge or complaint, or other proceeding (collectively, "Proceedings") against any of the Released Parties that is based in whole or in part on any claim or cause of action Plaintiff has released in this Agreement. Plaintiff represents that he is not a party to any pending Proceedings, whether internal or external, related to such matters, except for the Lawsuit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement or the release contained herein is intended to limit or impair Plaintiff's right to file a charge with, or participate in an investigation or proceeding conducted by, the , EEOC, NLRB, or any other state, federal, or local administrative agency, but it is intended that Plaintiff releases, waives, relinquishes, and foregoes, to the maximum extent allowed by law, all legal and equitable relief that Plaintiff otherwise may recover pursuant to the filing or prosecution of any Proceeding against the Released Parties, whether filed by Plaintiff or others, which is based in whole or in part on any claim or cause of action Plaintiff has released in this Agreement. This Agreement does not prohibit or restrict Plaintiff from initiating communications directly with, or responding to any inquiry from, or providing testimony before, any state or federal regulatory authority. Plaintiff is not required to notify Defendant if Plaintiff made such reports or disclosures, or to secure Defendant's permission to do so.

3.3. Attorneys' Fees and Costs. Plaintiff agrees and stipulates that the payment described in Paragraph 1 along with that described above represents the complete and total amount payable to Plaintiff and his current or former attorneys by Defendant; and further agrees that no other attorneys have any lien or claim for attorneys' fees in connection with representing them in the Lawsuit or in any other matter involving the Released Parties; and that this Agreement precludes Plaintiff from seeking any additional fees and/or costs from Defendant in connection with the Lawsuit in this matter or in connection with any claim released in this Agreement. Plaintiff acknowledges that he shall be solely responsible for compliance with and satisfaction of any attorneys' lien or other claim for their attorneys' fees arising under this Agreement not specified in Paragraph 1, and further agrees to indemnify

This Agreement shall be deemed to have been drafted by both Plaintiff and Defendant. 9. Severability. The Parties agree that if any provision of this Agreement is declared illegal or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction and cannot be modified to be enforceable, such provision shall immediately become null and void, leaving the remainder of this Agreement in full force and effect.

10. Limited Use of Agreement. This Agreement can only be used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding in which either party claims that the Agreement itself has been breached.

Plaintiff represents and warrants that Plaintiff has made no assignment for the benefit of creditors and that Plaintiff has not filed any bankruptcy proceeding.
